Canada Day ready to roll

The finishing touches and final details are being put in place for Canada Day 2004 celebrations, which start tomorrow evening with the Northeast Alberta Old Time Fiddlers Association jamboree at 7:30 p.m. in the Seniors Recreation Centre. Country Fyre and Route 66 will rock the A. G. Ross Arena at the Beerfest, beginning at 9 p.m. Fireworks will light up the sky around 11 p.m., south of Railway Avenue.

Thursday, July 1 gets off to a taste-tempting start as the Chamber of Commerce heats up the griddles for their Pancake Breakfast in the Servus Credit Union parking lot, 8:30 to 10:30 a.m., with entertainment by the Country Playboys and the finale of the Great Family Fur Factor Challenge.

The parade will line up along the Iron Horse Trail, with judging at 10 a.m. The decorated bicycles will lead the way around the new parade route starting at 10:45, with the rest of the parade to follow at 11:00. The parade goes north on Main Street to 52 Avenue, west to 54 A Street, south to 50 Avenue, east to 53 Street, south to 49 Avenue, east to 51 Street and south to the marshalling area.

Action then moves to the area in and around the A. G. Ross Arena. The Slow Tractor Race goes in the outdoor skating rink at 12:30 p.m., children's activities are scheduled for the Elementary School playground from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., and the UFA History in Motion caravan will be on site all afternoon. The stage show gets underway on the Canada Day stage at 2:00 p.m. and features Michael Carey, Adele Johnson, Optimist Public Speaking winners, the Country Playboys and more. A beer garden and food concession in the arena and the Christian Community Church's well-stocked pie tent will be ready to serve the crowd.

The day winds up with a Gospel Concert at the Seniors Recreation Centre, starting at 4:30 p.m.

Have a great Canada Day, everyone!

Chatters clinches victory in Westlock-St. Paul

By Leighton Klassen
St. Paul Journal Staff

Hard work and steel-plated optimism paid off for Conservative Party of Canada incumbent candidate Dave Chatters, who, at about 8:30 p.m. yesterday was declared the winner of the Westlock-St. Paul riding in the 2004 federal election.

Early deadline

Due to Thursday's Canada Day holiday, the deadline for July 7 advertising will be 12:00 Noon on Wednesday, June 30. Have a Happy Canada Day.

"We've got it," said a smiling Dave Chatters just moments after learning he'd won the riding. "We're very, very excited right now for this new riding."

Chatters was declared victorious while posting a 69.43 per cent lead at press time with 120 of 238 polls reporting, ahead of the leading competitor, Liberal Joe Dion, who posted only 16.07 per cent.

That amounts to Chatters receiving 12,289 votes and Dion, 2,844.

"This is Conservative country," Chatters said. "And we've went to a lot of doors and worked really hard to get here."

Chatters added the most prominent characteristic that was attributable to his victory was his experience in Ottawa as well as his duties served while in the Athabasca district.

"I would say my experience in Ottawa was definitely my strongest attribute, and my experience while in Athabasca as well."

With a large proportion of votes yet to be tabulated nationally, Chatters did not want to comment on any specific agendas he plans on carrying out.

"Whether or not we'll be able to do what we want to carry out is still waiting on the national scene."

Known for his consistent criticisms of Joe Dion and the Liberal party, Chatters managed a complement for his arch rival of this particular riding.

"Joe Dion had a really strong campaign," Chatters said. "He's a hard worker, and you really can't be over-confident in these ridings."

Looking back, however, Dion would have made changes in his campaign.

"I probably would have liked more workers to help with the campaign," Dion said, pointing out that not having enough volunteers was a drawback.

Stars of the Future shine at FGM

The Stars of the Future were in the spotlight at F. G. Miller High School on Saturday night as the Grade 12 celebrated Prom 2004.

A pathway of gold stars emblazoned with the name of each Grade 12 student led to the auditorium, festooned with elegant black draperies sprinkled with smaller golden stars. Master of ceremonies and former classmate Darcy Ockerman introduced each student as they made their way down a red carpet edged in lights leading to a stage flanked with movie-style lights.

Valerie Friesen led the singing of O Canada.

Parents Darlene Kozicky and Lorraine Ference, who said they had known many of the grads "from diapers to cap and gown," gave a farewell message. "You are all unique individuals... we honor those who are talented and gifted," Mrs. Kozicky said. "Opportunity awaits you. Seek out the possibilities."

"Don't be afraid to make mistakes," Ms Ference added. "Change will make you a stronger person. Don't be afraid to leave home... enjoy every stage of your life. We believe in you, our children. Travel safely through your journey in life."

Alison Hammond and Kyla Ference gave the class history, giving a brief rundown on each of their classmates as Students Union representatives Shyla Bullock and Touer Haines presented school pins, commemorative CDs and County pens.

The packed crowd enjoyed a slide show starring each member of the class.

Parents Terry Shankowski and Terry Breen invited everyone to "Remember When..." as they recounted memorable moments for each student. Mrs. Breen said, "If we'd known we would be doing this, we'd have taken notes!" Mrs. Shankowski advised the grads to "keep making good and happy memories."

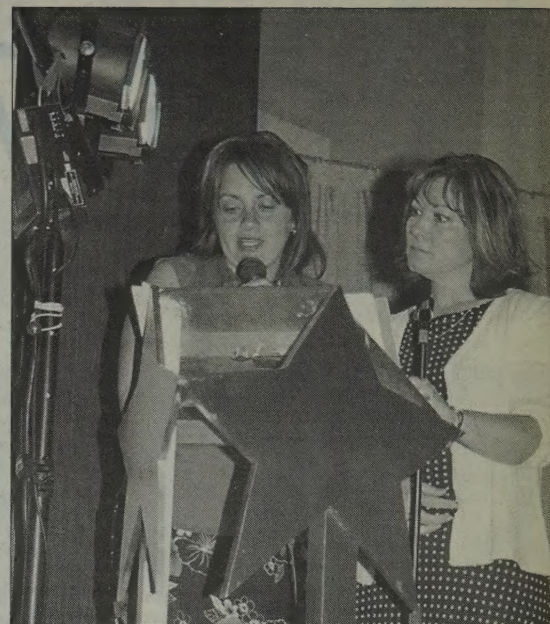

John Braga was the first of three students who shared in the Class Message. He quoted Erma Bombeck, "Graduation day is tough for adults. They go to the ceremony as parents.

They come home as contemporaries. After years of child-raising, they are unemployed" and added thanks to all who helped the Class of 2004 reach this special day.

Kristyn Ballas presented advisor Cheri Lindquist with flowers. Mrs. Lindquist told the story of a Grade 12 student who finished question #48 on her exam on Friday, turned the page and realized "she was done her test, she was done Grade 12." This is a unique class, she said. "With the least time to decorate, they created a look which is simple and elegant. They were the first class to finish their class history weeks ahead of time... the class with John Braga, who received 100% on three core subject exams... the first class to show talent," Jason Kalynchuk, whose Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers mural adorned the wall.

Robin and Kristyn had memories of growing up in a small community to share: "being able to name everyone in our class... teachers calling you by your older sister's name, or remembering when they taught your parents... We hope everyone's memories are just as unique."

As each student left the stage, Mrs. Lindquist was waiting with a rose and a hug, as they joined their escorts and paraded triumphantly out of the auditorium and into the waiting world.

PARENTS IN THE SPOTLIGHT - Terry Shankowski (left) and Terry Breen told a few tales in school as they "remembered when..."

"THANKS FOR ALL THE ADVICE," Kristyn Ballas told advisor Cheri Lindquist.

Good news on doctor issue, Tung tells Chamber of Commerce

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce was in a festive mood last week, when Town Councillor Parrish Tung brought the good news that he is "95% sure" that Elk Point will have a new doctor come September.

Tung said that in May 2003, when Dr. Sandy Koe closed her practice, the Town set up a doctor recruitment committee involving himself and Mayor Lyle Frisby. "Since then, we have been contacting doctors." Finding none within Canada, they widened their search to overseas. "The past six months, we have had doctors coming through. It has been a humbling experience, and frustrating", Tung said, but the committee has had "a lot of help from local people."

The potential doctor "comes at some financial cost," Tung noted. "Council had a lengthy debate... and Aspen [Regional Health Authority] has been very helpful, giving him a signing bonus and concessions."

Tung asked the Chamber for assistance in helping to set up an office for the new doctor, and to help in finding him an apartment and furniture. The new physician is expected to open his practice just after Labor Day.

"I think the Town's done a great job, Chamber past president Eugene Buck told Tung. "I'm so pleased to see you guys being aggressive."

Tung said a female doctor is also arriving in September for a two month locum position, with another locum scheduled for January.

This was the final meeting for Chamber until September 1, following a two-month summer break.

Grade 5 goes global,
and explores the food
of many cultures

ELK POINT ELEMENTARY'S GRADE 5 STUDENTS and some of their parents enjoyed trying out foods from many cultures at last Thursday's International Dinner. A number of cultural backgrounds were represented on the menu, which included everything from borscht to deep-fried bannock and Greek salad to strawberry trifle. The dinner is an annual event, and gives students a new appreciation for the foods of other lands.

ELK POINT SENDS WARM WISHES along with more than 40 quilts, piles of pillows, stacks of towels, toys and ditty bags bound for Shiloh Youth Ranch for underprivileged children.

Local groups load up help for less fortunate children

Two Elk Point groups have combined their efforts to send off a cargo of warmth and comfort to the underprivileged children who will visit Shiloh Youth Ranch near Bruderheim this summer.

The Wednesday Quilting Group has completed over 40 quilts to keep young campers cozy, along with a number of pillows, and have also collected a sizeable donation of toys. The Elk Point Christian Community Church congregation has added more pillows, stacks of towels and ditty bags filled with toiletries and other daily needs to the shipment.

Shiloh Youth Ranch is a camp which welcomes any underprivileged children. It is totally non-profit and has a Christian-based atmosphere. Last year, 362 campers, 152 of them teenagers, enjoyed a seek-long session at the ranch, under the care of 49 staff members.

This year, there will be seven week-long camps, for children ranging from 7 to 16 years old. They will enjoy horseback riding, archery, trampolines, skateboarding and other activities, thanks to the generosity of numerous donors from across northern Alberta.

Proceeds from fundraising rallies in St. Paul, Bonnyville, Edmonton and St. Albert will help to defray the cost of the programs, which is estimated at $250 per child.

Other donations helping to keep the camp operational have come in the form of hay, livestock feed troughs, tools and other items.

A great big thank you!

Yes it is time to say thank you to everyone. On behalf of the Elk Point Canada Day Committee, we would like to thank everyone.

First of all, let us thank everyone who donated financially to help us pay for the expenses of our Canada Day celebrations. They are: ATB Financial, B & R Eckels, Cal's Hardware Ltd., CCS Energy Services, Canadian Natural Resources Ltd., Canadian Salt Co. Ltd., Canadian Heritage Government of Canada, County of St. Paul #19, The Cutting Edge, E-Can Oilfield Services, Elk Point and District Lions Club, Elk Point Historical Society, Elk Point Insurance and Realty Ltd., BPO Elks Lodge #460, Hahn Welding and Oilfield Services, Jorvik Machine Tool and Welding Inc., Kudu Industries Inc., Kuhn's Collectibles, Lakeland Tire Ltd., Richland Oilfield Services, Royal Canadian Legion Branch #151, Signatures Collision and Frame, Town of Elk Point and Weatherford Artificial Lift Systems BMW Products & Services. You all are wonderful. Thank you, financial sponsors!

Next, thanks to all the people who have donated in kind. They are: Elk Point Arena Operating Committee for the use of the Arena, Elk Point Pioneer Circle for the use of the Seniors Centre, Elk Point Elementary School for the use of their south playground, and above all, "Mother Nature" for giving us a beautiful day (rain or shine!).

To our fireworks organizer Marshall Kachmar - you have been the one we have counted on to organize our great fireworks display. Thank you. We appreciate you.

To the Lions and the Firemen for the beer-fest, thank you. Then there is a jamboree at the Seniors Centre. Thank you to the North East Old Time Fiddlers Association. To the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce - your pancake breakfast is something we look forward to every year. Thank you, volunteers.

To the Elk Point Lions Club for organizing the parade on July 1 - thank you. We hope our new route is enjoyable to all. To the Parent Nursery people for organizing the children's activities - thank you! What about the old time slow tractor race? Thank you boys, for racing your tractors, and thanks also to the businesses who donated prizes.

To Thomas Kondla for organizing the outdoor stage show. Thank you, Thomas! You are so wonderful to find all the talented performers. This year you found Michael Carey, Adele Johnson, the Country Playboys, three Optimist speaker winners from Elk Point schools and others who will share their talents. We cannot forget Rob Walker and the great sound system. Thank you, Rob.

To Harvey Nadeau for organizing the Gospel Concert. This year it is happening at the Seniors Centre after the outdoor stage show. Some of the performers are: Calvary Family Fellowship Ministries - Prayer and Worship Team, Harmony Singers, Gabe Bayduza and Friends, Ralph and Adele Johnson, Michelle Friesen, Michael Carey, Coral Littlejohn, Shaina and Brittney Gill and Allyssa Vallee and others.

While we are all enjoying the outdoor stage show, we would like to say thank you to the people who supply the food - the Skating Club for preparing food inside the arena and of course the Christian Community Church pie tent. Thank you everyone. Then there is the Canada Day Birthday Cake. The ladies of the Order of the Royal Purple Elk Point Lodge #269 bake this big cake for us every year. Thank you, ladies.

Last of all, but not least, let us thank the Canada Day Committee themselves: Bernice Capjack, chairperson, Deanna Easthope, secretary treasurer, and committee members Jonny Nielsen, Kathy Berlinguette, Myra Boothman, Vicki Brooker, Thomas Kondla, Harvey Nadeau, Gene Russell, Sandy Smith, Rob Smith, Parrish Tung, Laverne Wilson and Wayne Wruth. Thank you all.

Caps, gowns and dolphins for Heinsburg ECS graduates

Fifteen capped and gowned graduands marched solemnly onto Heinsburg Community School's stage last Thursday, and left an hour later all set to start Grade 1.

The grads were introduced by teacher Kathy Kozina, who read them "Child Is This?" The grads entertained the crowd of proud parents and grandparents with two songs, "Five Little Dolphins" and "Baby Beluga".

Local School Trustee Darrell Younghans brought greetings from St. Paul Regional Division #1, noting that this is the first full-time kindergarten class, and was a pilot project. "No doubt the youngsters, and some parents, felt it was a bit frightening. I hope it has been a good experience." He told the grads, "I look forward to seeing you back here in another 12 years, in bigger caps and bigger gowns."

Fair books available this week

Lists of potential entries for the upcoming Elk Point Agricultural Society Bench Fair are hot off the press and will be available this week at several locations around town, including the Elk Point Review, Elk Point Insurance and Realty and the Tourist Booth.

The fair is coming up on August 14 and 15, with entries received Saturday and public viewing on Sunday.

Principal Carl Christensen congratulated the students on completing their first year of schooling. "I hear you all did well, and I can almost guarantee that the next 12 years will go equally well. I never got to go to kindergarten," he invented yet. You are very lucky to come to school and have a great time."

Christensen helped Miss Kozina to present each student with a diploma hugged by a small stuffed animal.

Miss Kozina said the year had been "adventurous" and thanked her helpers. She was presented with a brightly colored blanket to use with the class before the grads left the stage to join their families for cake and refreshments.

SOLUTIONS

Albertans just like you are worried about our schools

Independent research proves that Albertans want solutions to problems in our kindergarten to Grade 12 classrooms... problems such as class sizes and inadequate funding.

TEACHERS ARE READY TO HELP SOLVE THESE PROBLEMS AND AVOID POSSIBLE STRIKES IN THE FALL

A One Year Salary Freeze and Ongoing Salary Restraint:

Teachers are willing to take a salary freeze for one year and limit salary increases for three more years if the provincial government would agree to deal with the outstanding debt in the jointly managed teachers' pension plan. This would free up additional funding that school boards would then use to improve classroom conditions.

Guaranteed Improvements in Classroom Conditions:

Teachers are calling on school boards to guarantee that they will reduce class sizes and eliminate large classes over the next three years. School boards must also achieve other recommendations for improvement made by Alberta's Commission on Learning and provide teachers with time to prepare their lessons.

Guaranteed Funding:

Teachers are calling on government to guarantee school boards the funding they need to improve teaching and learning conditions.

Preserving Local Control:

Teachers want to preserve the right of locally elected school boards and teachers to freely bargain practical solutions to local issues.

TEACHERS ARE WILLING TO DO THEIR PART TO FIND SOLUTIONS. WILL SCHOOL BOARDS AND THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT DO THEIRS?

Our students deserve better.
 They deserve a solution before September.

Glendon graduands cherish yesterday, tomorrow

It's often been said that nobody remembers the decorations...but that's only if they aren't good. The RCMP Hall was decorated to a tee when sixteen graduates and their family and friends celebrated 12 years of school. The theme "Cherish your yesterdays, dream your tomorrows and freeze your memories in time" lent itself nicely to a "cool" room filled with lights and icy décor. These grads were hoping to freeze this proud moment in time before going on to follow their hearts in various places beyond Glendon. Lynn Dargis gave the valedictory speech focussing on what it is like to leave home.

Frog Lake valedictorian proud of accomplishing her biggest goal

By NEYOSA QUINNEY
Valedictorian

First of all, I'd like to thank everyone for coming and celebrating with me and my fellow graduates. Also, the Great Spirit for giving us another day of life. Being the valedictorian is something I should be proud of and happy about. I have no idea what I'm supposed to say, but I'll say what's in my heart.

I'm proud I've accomplished one of my biggest goals, to graduate and move one step further on my education path. I wish one day to go to university and graduate or convocate there also. But today, or the whole week before grad, I have been many emotions and depressed. Sad that this is where I consider the end of my childhood. I can't be young forever, but I'm glad I've grown up here, with everyone in Frog Lake.

Grade school in a young person's eyes is hard, and at times you want to give up or quit.

Growing up, you have so many emotions and drama that life seems unbearable. So I'd like to thank a few people for keeping me in school and making life easier.

I'd like to thank my parents for showing and teaching me about love, courage, respect, forgiveness and of course, money. I could not ask to be blessed with different parents because I swear there aren't any two people who could do a better job.

I'd like to thank all the teachers and teacher aides throughout my whole schooling for teaching and feeding us with knowledge. You, along with my parents, have molded me into the character I've become today.

I'd especially like to thank Nikita, Cassandra and Shannon for making school worthwhile and for being my best buddies; we've had and done so much together, thank you. Also thank you to my siblings for being so loving and caring and to some for being role models. Thank you.

Now to look on the positive side, thank you to everyone who dislikes or disliked me, was mean and I guess complained that I shouldn't be up here. It made me stronger, happier and a lot more proud. Thank you to the grad committee, caterers, Lily and everyone else who has made this night special and actually happen. And to my fellow grads, congratulations. I wish you all the best of luck, and I hope life treats you good. Thanks, everyone, for your time and patience. Have a great night.

F.G. Miller High School Class of 2004

In the brief moments of graduation, everything changes forever

By JOHN BRAGA
F.G. Miller Class of 2004

Graduation is a moment taken out of time: the few hours we spend at the ceremonies are nothing compared to the thirteen years we have spent in school. Yet in this brief instant, everything changes. Instantly we become adults, transformed from the children we were when we walked into the room. For that brief period of time, our memories of the past, the reality of the present, and our hopes for the future exist simultaneously in such an array of emotions that it is nearly overwhelming.

How we reach Graduation and the path we take from here are irrelevant; everything and everyone is now singular in this moment and shares the same realization of what is occurring. Every student, from the bottom of the class to the top, is handed the exact same piece of parchment. Everyone, including the athlete, the artist, and the academic, is wearing the same cap and gown. Despite our differences, we converge upon this one moment, unrecognized singularly but as a collective at a pivotal point. The all inclusiveness of the event draws us together to the realization that we are entering into the fullness of society and the collective unity of humankind. From this point on, we again diverge, taking our own paths in life. Some will never meet again, while others will remain in close contact over the years. The moment will pass leaving each of us with different impressions that we will carry into our future.

Graduation exists as a symbol of this moment in time, this transition from child to adult. We are presented before you to show that this alteration has taken place, to illustrate to all that it has occurred. In a lot of ways it is also your acknowledgement that you now perceive us as adults.

Although at Graduation we are released all at once, we are not equally prepared - some feel ready and others do not. Whatever occurs, we can return to our parents to help us understand and cope with the future. A new relationship is growing, and we are sure to return many times seeking advice and comfort in the coming years. Today we are released, but we are never completely gone.

I am honoured to have been asked to speak for this wonderful occasion. Everything in the past has made us what we are today. The last 12 years of our lives have prepared us for the many challenges ahead. We are about to walk into a new world; many of us will enter college or university or even directly into the work force. We all know inevitable things will happen; things will go wrong, however spending the last 12 years with you our parents and teachers, we are no longer afraid and we are ready to face reality.

Grads prepared to face obstacles, challenges on the road ahead

By LAURA-ANNE KUTRYK
Valedictorian

It seemed like forever, but we finally reached that pinnacle which we have been working towards and anticipating for the last 12 years of our lives. We have finally completed that short fragment of our lives that taught us hard work, dedication, maturity, and gave us the most invaluable memories. A part of our voyage is over, but really, the journey has just begun.

The last 12 years of school have been more than memorizing formulas and Shakespeare, cramming for all those tests and procrastinating, and counting down the days till grad; it has provided us with an environment for us to grow and mature, and develop to our full potential, whether it be socially, academically, athletically or artistically. The people we have become reflect the efforts of the people who helped us get here. To our teachers, you all played a very important role in our lives. You always pushed us to do our best and to strive for excellence. When we thought we knew everything, you were always there to remind us that we didn't. You always made sure we got our daily dose of knowledge. To our parents, you have been with us since the beginning and instilled in us the discipline and gave us the encouragement and love that got us here today. You guided us and kept us focused on the most important things in life. We can almost look back now and admit you were right all along.

To the grads - classmates and friends, you made the last 12 years fun and memorable, and at certain times - bearable. You were there for each other to give a hug or kick in the butt whenever needed.

As we leave this stage today to begin our new journey and pursue our dreams, we take with us all our memories: the successes and disappointments, the good times and the sad times. As the future forces us to face new obstacles and challenges, we can be confident that we are prepared to face whatever awaits us. Always strive to reach your goals and don't be afraid to take risks, because that's what life is all about.

There's no doubt that there will be dark times and hard days ahead, but as Albert Einstein once put it: "Anyone who has never made a mistake has never tried anything new."

Message from Superintendent

Graduates move on as champions

SUBMITTED BY DOUGLAS YEO

Superintendent, St. Paul Education Region

To the graduating classes of 2004, and to their families, teachers, and friends, congratulations!

Your parents and teachers are proud of you. You represent what high school is all about. In our eyes, you are all champions.

For the past years, you sat in class and completed the work assigned, sometimes enthusiastically, sometimes under protest. You laughed, and you cried, but you did it.

What makes the difference between those students who dropped out of school and the champions, like yourself, sitting here today? Over the years, I've observed that there are three ingredients that make a true champion — desire, character and cohesiveness.

Champions have a desire to win. Students who look forward to learning new material and facing new challenges have this desire to win. They set goals and objectives, then work to reach them. They know which way they are going and what it takes to get there. Champions constantly evaluate their status in order to improve poor areas of performance and readjust goals for continued advancement. They not only say "I can," they announce, "I will."

A champion's character is based on honesty and integrity. The essence of your personality — how you view life and treat others — is basically good and positive.

Champions demonstrate a certain cohesiveness. They tend to work well with others, often pulling together in order to move forward.

Champions lead in some things and follow in others, but they are always moving forward, whether in school, in business or in community service.

Desire, character, cohesiveness — the ingredients that make true champions.

You are all champions today. Will you continue to be champions tomorrow? The choice is yours.

I believe you can accomplish whatever goals you set for yourself. However, William Wordsworth said it much more eloquently than I when, speaking of his fellow humans, he said, "We are greater than we know. It's true for us as individuals, as institutions and as a society. We can only guess our true potential. And we can only achieve it if we get past the paradigms and unleash our imaginations."

I challenge you to remain champions and unleash your imaginations so you can reach your true potential, for your journey has just begun.

Good luck in all that you do.

Shantelle Moyah

BY RANDI DANIELS AND SHANTELE MOYAH
Heinsburg Class of 2004

Randi:

It is in hoping that we dream, in dreaming that we seek, in seeking that we find. We have all dreamed and sought to find our way to this day. We have all shared laughter, tears and triumphs, and we will leave these doors not only as friends, but as family. Each of us leaves a part of ourselves behind, we leave a mark not only through what we have achieved but the lives we've touched.

There was once a man who stood and said, "I have a dream." He said these words even though he was not sure this dream could be reached. But he believed. He believed even if others did not. That is what I ask of you today.

Having a dream is easy, it is believing in the dream that is hard. So believe in yourself, but more importantly, believe in your dream.

We have all proved that we can achieve our goals. When you leave here, I hope for you all to find your place in life, your happiness and your dream. Believe in yourself because I believe in you.

Shantelle:

It has been a long and sometimes hard journey to get to where we are today. No one starts their education journey seeing the light at the end of the very narrow tunnel.

Some kids start school as early as three in the head-start program and some not until the kindergarten age of four or five, but they do not set off to school on the first day thinking, "This is the first day of school and my last day will be 12 years from now." Even when you get into elementary, you are not counting off the years left to graduate, you are more concerned with your immediate surroundings and friends. Teachers, parents and guardians try to guide you in the right direction, but you still are not concerned about where you are heading.

When you enter Grade 10 there comes a little bit of excitement: you will be done in three years, Grade 11 - two years, and finally we get to today. This is not the end for us. From this day on, whether we choose to continue on to college or university or into the employment field, we are not done, our education will continue. We may no longer be in a classroom setting, but we will continue to learn from those around us, those who, in the background, have encouraged us, from the first day of school, drying our eyes and telling us that this was the beginning of an exciting journey, made us smile and then pushed us out that door, to today and tomorrow guiding and encouraging us on our next step.

We are young, but we are now adults, accomplishing our first goal in life has taught us that with the support of others we can accomplish whatever it is we want to do. Imagine your future and do your best to get there.

We didn't get here alone. We have to thank everyone who, at one time, no matter how little they have touched our lives, but most of all we have to thank our parents, guardians and grandparents for they were a part of it every day of our lives. Without their encouragement and support, particularly those times when severe encouragement was needed, we would not be here today. We thank you, our nearest and dearest. We could never repay your kindness and sacrifices, but it was without a doubt your love and support that helped get us here.

Soon you will be starting a new chapter in your life.

Congratulations and best of luck!

review SPORTS

Congratulations Sox graduates and GOOD News Bears

It doesn't happen very often, but believe it or not, sometimes sports does come second. This past weekend was one of those weekends. Several of the Sox players were involved with the high school grad in one fashion or another.

Congratulations to the 2004 Sox graduates -- "Big Steve" Kozina who plans to go on to Grant McEwen, Greg "House" Kozicky who's going to NAIT, to Grayson "Big Smack" Bilak, and Kurt "the Wall" Kozicky who both have plans to go to the U. of A. Although he doesn't attend F.G.M., Joel "Lucky" Leckie is also graduating this year and has post secondary plans as well. Good luck in the future, boys, but remember once the celebrating is over this weekend you need to report back to the diamond for one more month so you can graduate from your minor ball careers.

The provincial exam is on right now, this coming weekend the Sox will be in the hotbed of baseball, Acme, playing in the second round of provincial round robins, the top eight teams as you all know will be coming here on July 23rd, 24th and 25th for the Grand March.

The Bad News Bears may have to consider changing their name next year if they keep this up. Tuesday night the Bears won their first game of the season against Cold Lake. Jerin "Bunt" Bezpalko started at the mound, letting in only three runs in the first three innings. Tate Jensen, who was catching, then went to the mound and Jerin took over behind the plate, shutting down Cold Lake and winning 16 to 3. Pitching is only good if you can count your defense, the infield playing a tight game, keeping the Cold Lake runners close to the bags, and some great out fielding by Stephen Bannister, Sonny Benson and Ian Jurak. Tate Jensen with two solid taters to the fence brought in loaded bases twice. Jerin "Bunt" Bezpalko made some great bunts, getting to first and moving runners, but it took contributions from the whole team - Brad Swedgan, Nick Zapesocki, Richie McKay, Jerin Bezpalko, Stephen Bannister, Sonny Benson, Ian Jurak, Jordan Desjarlais, Tate Jensen and Cody Millions - that made it possible for the Bears to get their first win of the season.

But wait - this story gets better. Saturday with Lac La Biche unable to field a team in the Lakeland League final hosted by the Bears, the Bears and Cold Lake went with a best out of three mini series, the Bears bringing home the hardware and winning the league trophy. Excellent pitching by Brad Swedgan in the first game, Tate and Jerin helping out in the second game, and a super job by head coach Harvey "Taz" Jensen and his assistant "Badger Bob" Bezpalko. Watch out for this: on Canada Day the Bears are hoping to play Lac La Biche in an exhibition game on the diamond north of the arena.

And here's another success story: the mighty pee-wee boys wrapped up their season in St. Paul on June 19th in the Lakeland League final. A total of four teams competing, St. Paul, Cold Lake # 1, Cold

Lake # 2 and Elk Point. The boys played three round robin games, with the top two teams advancing to the final game, a total of four games on a very hot windy day. They lost the first game to St. Paul but bounced back to win the next two games against Cold Lake and advance to the final, where they met up again against St. Paul in a nail biter of a game that was back and forth, up and down with lots of hits and runs. The boys were very strong on the

Families take on the Great Fur Factor Challenge

TOTE THOSE FURS, WRAP THAT BALE - the Kinjerski team (left) and the Gadowski team go head to head in the Fur Press competition as Forts' senior interpreter Brent Kossey keeps a watchful eye on the proceedings.

The Great Family Fur Factor Challenge came to Fort George and Buckingham House on Sunday, as two hard-working families challenged each other and themselves in a test of fur trade skills and endurance.

They loaded canoes with bales of merchandise, tied up tightly packed bales of furs (or in this case, feathers and/or fiberfill), raced with tippy travois, and wound up with a tug-of-war. Bob and Grace Kinjerski and family are leading going into the final event, where they will again meet Leonard and Shaina Gadowski and sons, at the Canada Day Pancake Breakfast on Thursday. Be sure to come out and cheer them on!

ONE, TWO, THREE, HEAVE - the Kinjerski team takes the lead in the first heat of the Travois Races.

Busy ball weekend

sticks, but unfortunately St Paul won it all in the end. Pitching staff Dustin Berg, Dylan Berg, Ryan Marцениuk, Chevy Botting, John Schmidt, and Brett Lindquist did a remarkable job all day. Tanner Shankowski, Colton Hymanyk, Jordan Wozniak, and Jamison Wozniak provided good defensive support. Pat on the back to the coaching staff Lorn Berg, Wayne Hymanyk, Jerry Shankowski and Gary Marцениuk.

A great year for the team, but also some sadness, as most of you may be already aware, Gary Marцениuk has taken on a position with his company in Rocky Mountain House. He and his family will be moving this summer. Gary has always been involved in minor sports, coaching hockey and ball, and the Elk Point Minor Ball Association would like to thank him for all his time and effort and wish them all the best in the future. Also thanks this week to manager Rod Randall and the Servus Credit Union, for team pictures, that were sponsored in part by them.

And now for the K. A. Campbell's quote of the week "Washington - first in war, first in peace, last in the American League." Last week's answer to- "There are two things I teach the boys that are all American. One's the good old flag and one's baseball." - Sports writer Tim Murname, 1908. Do you have any scoops? Now you can email them to sportshound007@hotmail.com

It's not too late to sign up!

By Roseann Magdiak
Summer Reading Coordinator

Recently the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada, Alberta division has donated to our library the book "Multiple Sclerosis: The Facts You Need to Know" by Dr. Paul O'Connor. We at the Elk Point Public Library would like to thank them for their generosity. The book is currently available to the public to increase awareness about multiple sclerosis.

It's not too late to sign up for this year's Summer Reading Program. The program is starting July 6 and is running until August 19. Children ages 3 to 13 are welcome to register. For more information don't hesitate to call Roseann at 724-3737.

Storytime is not available this Friday or during the summer months. It returns to its regular time in September.

The library was closed yesterday and half of today, June 29 for computer maintenance. We will be open this afternoon from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. only. The library will be closed on Canada Day. Regular hours will resume on Friday, July 2. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.

IN MEMORIAM

BERG, Dennis

In loving memory of Dennis Berg, who passed away July 2, 1989.

Until We Meet Again
My life has changed so very much
Since the day you passed away
I know you're safe in Heaven
But, I miss you everyday
My thoughts and prayers are with you.

And every day since then I've been holding onto our memories

Until we meet again
I know someday we'll meet again
In Heaven up above
Again we'll share those special times

Filled with warmth and love
Some days are such a struggle
But, what keeps me on the mend
Is the certainty of believing
Someday we'll meet again
Our memories bring such comfort
I hold them oh, so close
And, our many conversations
Are what I miss the most
I'm sure you know I love you so
And, the love and prayers I send
Will wrap around you like a hug
Until we meet again ...

We love and miss you, Mom, Dad,
Rusty & Lynn & Family and Sharon & Family.

Christian Community Church to mark 10 years of growth

By Ruth Vogel
Review Contributor

Elk Point Christian Community Church will be holding our 10th Anniversary Service on July 4, 2004.

The day will begin with the morning worship service at 10 a.m., Pastor Dick Upham will be our speaker with special music. Following the service we will be moving outside for dinner. After we are all well fed, an afternoon of gospel music is planned. There will be activities for the children throughout the afternoon.

Please accept this as your invitation to join us for the entire day or any part of the day. Please bring your own lawn chair.

We thank God for the past 10 years. It has been a real time of blessings and growing in our faith.

Chatters clinches victory in Westlock-St. Paul

Now that the elections are over, Dion plans to get back to his oil and gas business and spend more time with his family, which he said he hasn't recently spent enough time with. When asked about his future involvement in politics, he was caught off-guard.

"I haven't given it a thought," he said. "It was a great campaign and it was great meeting so many people in this riding."

Dion went on to say it was a difficult battle campaigning in such a strong Conservative area, along with federal concerns such as the national gun registry and the problems of BSE. Still, Dion was encouraged by the return of a federal Liberal government.

"Which is good, and next year we can hope for a majority government, if it isn't already."

Final results from all polling stations weren't available at press time, however, New Democrat Party candidate Peggy Kirkeby received 9.38 per cent, or 1,661, with Green Party representative John A. McDonald garnering 905 votes, for 5.11 per cent. Nationally, the Liberal Party of Canada was leading the polls with 38.43 per cent, and the Conservatives followed closely with 29.07 per cent. Pick up your copy of the July 6 St. Paul Journal for final results and further reactions from the 2004 election.

Need to go to St. Paul? Now you can take the bus!

Yesterday was the first day for a new bus route linking Elk Point and St. Paul. Quality Time Tours and Greyhound Lines will offer the new service Monday through Friday of each week, leaving Elk Point at 8 a.m. and arriving in St. Paul at 8:25 a.m.

From St. Paul, the route goes directly to Myrnam and Two Hills, continuing on to Edmonton via Andrew, Mundare, Lamont, Fort Saskatchewan and Edmonton. The bus arrives in St. Paul in time to transfer to the route going via Vilna, Smoky Lake and Redwater on its way to Edmonton. The bus returning to Elk Point also connects in St. Paul with the Edmonton - Cold Lake bus and arrives in Elk Point at 10:25 p.m.
